

Select Committee on Career Technical Education and Workforce Development Expanding Career Pathways in California High Schools

March 26, 2010
9:00 am

Renaissance High School for the Arts
235 East 8th Street
Long Beach, California

Agenda

I. Welcome

- a. The Honorable Warren T. Furutani & Committee Members

II. Presentation of Successful Multiple Pathway Programs/Linked Learning

- a. The Honorable Mary Stanton, Board President, Long Beach Unified School District
- b. Robert Tagorda, Office of the Superintendent, Long Beach Unified School District
- c. Mark Zahn, Principal, Long Beach Unified School District
- d. Student Representative, Renaissance High School for the Arts

III. Expanding Pathway Access to all California Students

- a. Dr. Patrick Ainsworth, Director, Secondary, Career, and Adult Learning Division, California Department of Education
- b. Gary Hoachlander, President, California Center for College and Career
- c. David Rattray, Vice President of Education and Workforce Preparation, Greater Los Angeles Area Chamber of Commerce and REAL Coalition

IV. Local Workforce Development Needs

- a. Lori Lofstrom, Chairman of the Board, Long Beach Area Chamber of Commerce
- b. Kim Craft, International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers Local 11
- c. Mike Day, Teachers Association of Long Beach

V. Public Comment